Michigan Central

RAILROAD.

The "Niagara Falls Route."

The "Niagara Falls Route."

As the name implies, the Michigan Central runs through the central and best portions of the great State of Michigan; its lines extending from Chicago to Buffalo and Niagara Falls via Detroit, from Jackson to Bay City via Lansing and Saginaw, from Mackinaw City to Toledo via Bay City, East Saginaw and Detroit, and from Detroit to Grand Rapids via Jackson, in addition to the Air Line from Jackson to Niles, and branches to South Haven, South Bend, Joliet, Caro and Five Lakes. These lines tap all the principal cities and towns in Michigan and lines of Through Cars are run between all of these cities.

The Passenger Equipment of the Road during the past year has been largely increased and improved, and every thing that modern science and skill have done for the comfort and safety of railroad travelers can be found in the Michigan Central Trains. Smoking Cars with Revolving Chairs, and richly upholstered Drawing Room Cars are run on the Day Trains. New, Spacious and Palatial Sleeping Cars are run on all Night Trains, and on the Main Line Expresses the justly famous Dining Cars will be found to supply in an elegant and wholesome manner, meals that are praised by the epicures of our Country.

There are many advantages for all classes of travelers, to be had by taking the Michigan Central Trains, that cannot be found on rival lines, and we can safely recommend it to all travelers.

Through Cars are run without change in both directions between Chicago, New York and Boston; St. Louis, New York and Boston.

ALABASTINE!

A superior substitute for kalsomine, wall paper, etc., is based on the proper principles to constitute a durable wall finish, and is entirely different from all other preparations for the purpose.

Every additional coat of ALABASTINE, applied from time to time, adds to the strength of the wall, as they all cement together, forming one solid mass that will not scale from a hard surface, but becomes harder with age, obviating the necessity of scraping and washing walls. This alone places ALABASTINE far ahead of all other preparations for the purpose; while it is also very easily applied by any person, by following a simple given rule, and yet especially adapted to the fresco painters' use; is the cheapest finish known, as it requires but one half the number of pounds that it does of kalsomine to cover the same surface, and saves time and waste by being ready for use by adding hot water.

After Alabastine has been on a few weeks to harden, it may be washed with a sponge and water sufficient to remove spots of crock, lead pencil marks, or anything, except grease, without spotting it, by using care to only rub long enough to remove the marks; while a drop of water will spot kalsomine, and the least spot cannot be removed in any way.

GRAND RAPIDS, MICH., Sept. 27, 1880.

M. B. CHURCH, Manager for the Alabastine Company.

We have examined some of the work executed in this city with Alabastine, and are persuaded that as a material for application to plaster finish, it is fully equal in brilliancy to kalsomine, and is superior in respect to its adherence to all surfaces on which it may be placed, while the great objection to kalsomine is, that after successive coats have been put on the original one invariably scales off. With Alabastine the effect is quite the reverse; every additional coat merely adds to the strength of the original plaster finish, becoming incorporated with it, and obviating the necessity of washing the entire mass off. We have no hesitation in recommending it.

Respectfully,

ROBINSON & BARNABY, Architects.
